

Contact:

Isabel Feher-Watters
Acting President
416.367.5900 ex 30
www.cstd.ca

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

2013 Top Training Programs Awarded for Excellence
CSTD Recognizes 14 Canadian Cutting Edge Training Programs

Toronto, November 14, 2013

The Canadian Society for Training and Development (CSTD) honours 17 organizations for their outstanding training programs and products at the 2013 CSTD Conference and Trade Show.

“As the professional association serving the learning and development community, CSTD recognizes organizations that have developed innovative learning and training solutions for the workplace”, said Isabel Feher-Watters, acting President of CSTD. “These award winners have aligned their programming to the standards in the industry and have demonstrated value, originality and a positive experience for the learner.”

Each of this year’s winning submissions presented a unique approach to adult learning, focused on knowledge and skills transfer, often embracing emerging technologies. The 2013 winners include:

- Alberta Health Services
- Aviva Canada Inc.
- Calgary Police Service, Multimedia Unit
- Christie Communications
- Canadian Institute for Health Information
- Global Knowledge
- Hydro One Networks Inc.
- Morneau Shepell
- NAIT – Department of Teaching and Academic Development
- Ontario Real Estate Association, Centre for Leadership Development
- ShaughnessyHowell Inc.
- SIMLOG Inc.
- Suncor Energy Inc.
- TELUS
- Vista Training, Inc.
- Workers’ Compensation Board – Alberta
- Workplace Safety and Insurance, Learning and Performance

About CSTD – cstd.ca

Established in 1946, The Canadian Society for Training and Development (CSTD) is Canada's professional association focused on learning in the workplace. We define the profession's body of knowledge and code of ethics, develop the competencies of our members by offering a wide variety of events, webinars and resources, and recognize competency through certification.

###